Dear Jean Received your very kind letter monday and was happy to hear from you. Enjoyed being with you on Sunday, although I felt the visit was too short. I appriciated your invitation to the art gallery and your introducing of your friends. yes, by all means lets visit the Daumiers. However I would like to have you brush me up on the Daumier's and about the artist whose drawings he has. My evenings are open, however I shall be going over to Santa Cry on Mothers Day. I shall leave it to your convenience.

naw, about the caws. I have been noticing them a lot more since you mentioned it. They seem contented and happy. nothing to warry them. Some look a little thin. Saw a couple Reckon they were old friends.

However the hiels look lovely and green and the cows add a beautiful picture and the trip back and forth is pleasant.

Dispethis finds you in the very best of spirits and that everything at home is working smoothly.

Sincerely im

Monday afternoon 1959 -Dear Jean I left Principal motors this morning. 1st because I am sich and tired of the automobile husiness and have not had a vacation in fine years. 2 mg I was working on a commission basis and was not selling enough cars the automobile business is in bad shape) 3 20 I must devote some time now and get out the two books this gentlman wants that I told you about over the phone. after the dumnies and rough art work is furshed he will come down and help me work out as brocure and background of my past work, so that he personally Can present the whole plan and ideas to the president of his firm with whom he is very close. I don't know how things will work out, but I must do my share now to get these books solling. I have the distribution outlet now. I'm not going to lit it slip by. Sincerely me,

May 5th 1959 Dear Jean Seceived both your letters today and so glad to hear from your. Iruly sorry to hear about your dear Mothie, but glad she us sicking up again. trying period Jean and its turibly hard for you now, I know. But faith in yourself and what you are doing, knowing that it is the best, will always be equal to whatever obstacles or setbacks you may be called upon to face, and the day will some when your burden will be lifted and you shall have a new life filled with peace of mind and true happiness. Now Jean, I know that I am short, but my shoulders are broad. If I can be of any service or help to you in any way, let me know. How would your like to take a ride some evening next week. The evenings are long now, and it might do you some good to get out and "chew the fat" with "Doc" Diekie. you may have your choice of transportation. a new 1960 mercury, or a very elegant 1952 Pakard. Jean, I shall be very happy to be with you on Sunday may 15th at 1:15 and I am looking forward That the visit with der. adriani. Thank you for making this possible. Hope this finds you in the very best of spirits and accept nly great ling Cheen Jine the cows are just fine and dandy and I shall join the Defenders of Furbearers.

P.S. Deau had finished the first one, and would like to add a little more. Your letters are so kind and understanding and they give me a lift. I have had so many heartaches and asappointments on my path of life that sometimes I wonder what holding me up and keeping me going. The path has not always been straight as some peoples lives are, and I will have to admit that on the path I had forgotten to stoop down and smee the beautiful flowers along the way. But a higher power has kept me going, perhaps to test me for the victory to come. Touple of thoughts which I felt were basic principals for me. I believe that every one of us prows that his or her major job on Earth is to make some contribution no matter how small, and I realize and feel deep inside that I have a definate upward mission to perform during the time of my life span. I have always believed this and that is why I have never given up. when I say Victory, I mean the personal mward satisfaction of becoming successful with the talents God gave me. to guide me in the right derection, because I knew I had to do something, and I was afraid I night do the wrong thing. When I awake I went right down and told them I was leaving. Something has been lifted and I feel so much better today, I have work to do, my talent, must make other people happy. Hean dear, I know what you are going through. It is not easy, it is terribly tiring and discouraging. The been through it. But what can one do other than care and protect the one you love and make them as happy and comfortable as possible. The time will come when you will be able to look away up and say - I did my very best, and your conscience wice be clear, and your heavy heart will be light again, because he wice help you. Jean, outside of breakfast, lunch and denner I wice be home working. Hyou would care to drap over and say hello some afternoon, feel free to do so, Id love & have you. Perhaps you Could tree me about the animal anties and I could tree you more about the books. It's so hard to do so own the phone. Getting away and talking to an old broken down Cartoonist might give you a lift. Here are the simple directions. When you come down Pacific to the monterey Library on Madison - turn up left till you come to watson. Its a big Brown & White house set back will flagpale and statues around the lawwast the end of Watson. Jim!

You were so lovely looking and so kind to her. you made her very happy and she loves you dearly. Thank you so much for being so perfect. It was rather hard today gitting mupeef adjusted to the routine of selling automobiles. Even a day or two throws one off schedule and it takes a little time to get (into the grove). now my dear, I know that you have cestain things to do which are important, however please try to get your afternoon nap. That's important too. Remember we have a lot of exciting things to do yet. JE TAXME: YOU-) I am taking my vitamins

Simday Evening. Dear Jean Just returned from a very pleasant day with my mother, and my, how she enjoyed your flowers. The arrangement of the flowers were very artistic. That's another talent you have. Thank you very much for thinking about her. you in the Gaelery about 6:30 P.M. next Sunday, and we'll have a pleasant time? Hope you had a happy time on Easter day, and thank you for the invitation. Be a good gire till I see you. Sanguine Jam P.S. Phase convey my pindest personal segards to "Skinkie".

Monday 30 th Hear Jean -Please forgive the delay in answering your letter. It was a very kind and encouraging letter and I want to thank you. I am so glad you enjoyed the flawers. Saturday was my day off so I visited with my mother. Spent a lovely day with her. Jook her out to lunch and baught her a cute little white hat she admired in a window. She seemed so happy walking down the streets of Santa Cruy arm and arm with her son, and I could not help but feel, what a wonderful privilege for me. Sunday I had to work. The base thought perhaps there neight he some shappers, but not a soul showed up and to me it was a waste of time and fouled up my week end. Have read the brochuses on India, the pamphlet on Wildlife and the booklet by Krishnamusti about which I will talk to you atout later. I am enjaying your lovely gift to me on Miro; and I want to tack to you about his painting later ou. I have some ideas. Jean did you know that there is an article in the may issue of Meaders Digest about Herbert Hoover and in it it mentions the work of your father. If you do not have it, I shall keep it for you. I want to thank you again for the gift of Muro and the lavely day last Sunday. The luncheou was perfect and Denjoyed so much visiting with your and your and. This Certifies that were by me united in the bonds of Marriage in the year of our Lord Mineteen Hundred and conformably to the ordinance of God and the Laws of the State. Cicense Alontery (ac

The Order for the Solemnization of Marriage

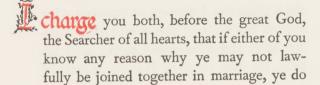

The Persons to be married shall present themselves before the Minister, the Man standing at the right hand of the Woman. Then, all present reverently standing, the Minister shall say:

in the presence of God, to join this Man and this Woman in holy marriage; which is instituted of God, regulated by His commandments, blessed by our Lord Jesus Christ, and to be held in honor among all men. Let us therefore reverently remember that God has established and sanctified marriage, for the welfare and happiness of mankind. Our Saviour has declared that a man shall leave his father and mother and cleave unto his wife. By His apostles, He has instructed those who enter into this relation to cherish a mutual esteem and love; to bear with each other's infirmities and weaknesses; to comfort each other in sickness, trouble, and sorrow; in honesty and industry to provide for each other, and for their household, in temporal things; to pray for and encourage each other in the things which pertain to God; and to live together as the heirs of the grace of life.

Forasmuch as these two Persons have come hither to be made one in this holy estate, if there be any here present who knows any just cause why they may not lawfully be joined in marriage, I require him now to make it known, or ever after to hold his peace.

Then, speaking unto the Persons who are to be married, the Minister shall say:

now confess it. For be ye well assured that if any persons are joined together otherwise than as God's Word allows, their union is not blessed by Him.

Then, if no impediment appear, the Minister shall say:

Let us pray.

natu and ever-blessed God, whose presence is the happiness of every condition, and whose favor hallows every relation: We beseech Thee to be present and favorable unto these Thy servants, that they may be truly joined in the honorable estate of marriage, in the covenant of their God. As Thou hast brought them together by Thy providence, sanctify them by Thy Spirit, giving them a new frame of heart fit for their new estate; and enrich them with all grace, whereby they may enjoy the comforts, undergo the cares, endure the trials, and perform the duties of life together as becometh Christians, under Thy heavenly guidance and protection; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then the Minister, calling the Man by his Christian name, shall say:

wilt thou have this Woman to be thy wife, and wilt thou pledge thy troth to her, in all love and honor, in all duty and service, in all faith and tenderness, to live with her, and cherish her, according to the ordinance of God, in the holy bond of marriage?

The Man shall answer:

I will.

Then the Minister, calling the Woman by her Christian name, shall say:

bear

wilt thou have this Man to be thy husband, and wilt thou pledge thy troth to him, in all love and honor, in all duty and service, in all faith and tenderness, to live with him, and cherish him, according to the ordinance of God, in the holy bond of marriage?

The Woman shall answer: I will.

Then the Minister may say:

this Man? this Woman to be married to

Then the Father, or Guardian, or Friend, of the Woman shall put her right hand in the hand of the Minister, who shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand and to say after the Minister as follows:

take thee, can

To be my wedded wife; And I do promise and covenant; Before God and these witnesses; To be thy loving and faithful husband; In plenty and in want; In joy and in sorrow; In sickness and in health; As long as we both shall live.

Then shall they loose their hands; and the Woman, with her right hand taking the Man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the Minister:

take thee,

To be my wedded husband; And I do promise and covenant; Before God and these witnesses; To be thy loving and faithful wife; In plenty and in want; In joy and in sorrow; In sickness and in health; As long as we both shall live.

Then if a ring be provided, it shall be given to the Minister, who shall return it to the Man, who shall then put it upon the fourth finger of the Woman's left hand, saying after the Minister:

This ring I give thee; In token and pledge; Of our constant faith; And abiding love.

Or,

With this ring I thee wed; In the name of the Father; And of the Son; And of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Before giving the ring, the Minister may say: Bless, O Lord, this ring, that he who gives it and she who wears it may abide in Thy peace, and continue in Thy favor, unto their life's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If a second ring be provided, a similar order shall be followed, the Woman saying the same words after the Minister.

Then the Minister shall say:

Let us pray.

the whole family in heaven and earth is named: Bestow upon these Thy servants the seal of Thine approval, and Thy Fatherly benediction; granting unto them grace to fulfill, with pure and steadfast affection, the vow and covenant between them made. Guide them together, we beseech Thee, in the way of righteousness and peace, that, loving and serving Thee, with one heart and mind, all the days of their life, they may be abundantly enriched with the tokens of Thine everlasting favor, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done; On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts; As we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say unto all who are present:

the authority committed unto me as a Minister of the Church of Christ, I declare that____

are now Husband and Wife, according to the ordinance of God, and the law of the State: in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then, causing the Husband and Wife to join their right hands, the Minister shall say:

hom therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

It is fitting that the Bride and Groom kneel to receive this benediction.

Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you: the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace: both now and in the life everlasting. Amen.

Or,

Holy Spirit, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favor look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace; that ye may so live together in this life that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

MR. and MRS. JAMES DICKIE
(The bride is the former Jean Kellogg, Carmel Highlands artist)

Yesterday was Miss Jean Kellogg's wedding day. The Carmel Highlands artist, daughter of the late Vernon and Charlotte Kellogg, exchanged vows with James Dickie at an afternoon ceremony in the Kellogg home in the Highlands.

Dr. Joseph M. Ewing, pastor of the Carmel Presbyterian Church, presided at the marriage service which was witnessed by a small company of guests, among them Mr. Dickie's mother, Mrs. J. W. Smith of Santa Cruz; Jean's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Regula Bernays of Piedmont and Mrs. Abraham Melden of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zalk of Ojai. Mr. Zalk gave Jean in marriage.

After a few weeks in Southern California, Mr. and Mrs. Dickie will return to make their home in Carmel Highlands.

Forsaking a college career for an early study of art, Jean worked alternately in California and on the East coast, and also in Europe where she travelled with her parents, first as a painter, ater as a graphic artist.

A long time exhibitor and winner of the Phelan Award in Graphic Arts, Jean is represented in the Museum of Modern Art, the San Francisco Museum of Art, the Duncan Phillips Gallery in Washington, D. C. Her work is also in many private collections. The special edition of Robinson Jeffers' poem, "The Loving Shepherdess," designed by Merle Armitage and illustrated by Jean, is in many public libraries in this country and abroad. Jean plans to continue actively her career as a painter, using the material around her on the Carmel coast.

Mr. Dickie is also a distinguished artist. Born in Scotland, his family moved to Piedmont, where James quickly started his destined career as a cartoonist.

In Hollywood he established himself in the field of cartooning, making a number of successful moving pictures that led to the publication of a series of children's books.

Later Mr. Dickie was connected with the Oakland Tribune as feature cartoonist, creating a special page devoted to the antics of children and their pets, entitled "What Does Your Dog Do?"

Returning to Hollywood to be active in radio and television, he subsequently engaged in an extensive tour of the United States, sketching people and doing diversified cartoon drawings in theaters and night clubs.

At present he is working toward a series of books and syndicated features concerned with children and their pets.

Jean Dickie Sees Feverish Digging

Writing to Peninsula friends from the East Coast, Jean Kellogg Dickie, Carmel Valley artist, describes changing New York City as "a great place for a constant feverish digging and delving in the reluctant rock. But some things are still the same, like the tugboats warping out the liners.

"The tugs themselves — or parts of them — plastered with frayed ropes and split rubber tires, are better assemblages in my opinion than the Rauschenbergs built of those same materials at the Museum of Modern Art."

Jean speaks of another exhibit, at the Knoedler gallery, as "a revelation — a loan retrospective of Maurcie Prendergast, the 19th Century painter neglected by the critics of his time and now drawing the jaded crowds and students here to his sparkling original patterns."

Jean, on a trip East with her husband, James Dickie, visited Washington, D.C. before going up to New York, and "it was a real homecoming," she writes. "Jim and I went down to Father's old office at the National Academy of Sciences."

Jean's father, the late Prof. Vernon Kellogg, established a home in Carmel during the days when he was on the science faculty of Stanford University, and after serving as assistant to Herbert Hoover in his post World War I rehabilitation program in Belgium and Poland he became executive secretary of the National Research Council at the Academy of Sciences in Washington.

"The present executive secretary showed us around," writes Mrs. Dickie, "and explained the enormous changes that have taken place in the Academy and National Research Council in recent years.

"On the art and education side we lunched with Mrs. Eugene Meyer, whose family controls Newsweek magazine and the Washington Post. Art and education are her real concerns, and, still active at 80, she was about to lecture to teachers all over the country on the necessity of action at the state level, which she has always stood for."

As for the fall color, Jean says, "It was the most brilliant autumn around Washington in years, all shades of red, gold and bronze."

Jean's husband has recently written and illustrated a promising book for use in the education of retarded children.

Sheila has a horse. The horse is Hoco. Hoco wears no shoes. Neither does Sheila. Sheila wears her hair long. So does Hoco. Vild maned together they splash through the sunset Printing their path on the hard wet sand. In the lee of the darkening cliff Sheila sings of her love. Hoco thinks she means him and she does.
